

PROFILE

Northam Platinum Limited, a broadly-based black empowerment company, wholly owns and operates a medium-sized platinum group metals (PGMs – platinum, palladium and rhodium) mine in South Africa's Limpopo Province, at the upper end of the western limb of the Bushveld Complex.

AT A GLANCE

- > Metals output: 360 000 oz (3PGE + Au)
- > Current life-of-mine of 16 years
- > 18.2 Moz resource base within current lease area
- > Underground operations on the Merensky and UG2 reefs
- > Pioneers of low environmental impact hydropower mining methods
- > World class concentrating, smelting and refining infrastructure, capacity and expertise
- > Independent metals marketing to a geographically diversified global customer base

CONTENTS:

Investor information	inside front	Sustainable development	page 26
Ten year review	page 2	Mining Charter scorecard	page 55
Profile	page 4	GRI Index	page 56
Scope of report	page 5	Directors and management	page 57
Message from the Chairman and CEO	page 6	Corporate governance	page 59
General manager's report	page 12	Annual financial statements	page 64
Financial review	page 16	Notice of annual general meeting	page 101
Mineral resource and reserve estimate	page 19	Proxy	insert
		Glossary	page 105
		Administration and contact information	inside back